

Tolaini Picconero 2011

93 pts..

Wine Spectator

TOP PICK by Bruce Sanderson in the Tuscan Tasting Report (10/31/16)

93 points - "Harmonious, complex and just beginning to hit its stride, this red features black cherry, black currant, violet, toast and mineral aromas and flavors that permeate the smooth texture, unfolding in layers to a long, fruit-, mineral- and spice-infused aftertaste. Merlot and Cabernet Franc. Drink now through 2028." -B.S.

vinous

93 points - "The 2011 Picconero is a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc. Rich and nicely layered in the glass, the 2011 shows the year's radiance and pure generosity in its open-knit personality and soft contours. Sweet red cherry, mocha, spice, mint and leather add shades of nuance on the close..." -A.G.

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

93 points - "A wine with structure and depth. Very racy and beautiful with lots of currant, berry and chocolate aromas. Full body. Fresh and clean. A blend of 65% merlot and 35% cabernet franc. Drink now or hold." -J.S.

www.tolaini.it