WINE ENTHUSIAST

MAGAZINE

94 Tolaini 2004 Tenuta Montebello Picconero (Toscana); $130. Inky concentration and pretty sweet cherry come right at you thanks to the natural intensity of this Merlot-Cabernet-Petit Verdot blend. The wine's thick fruitiness extends deep and wide over the palate, giving it a distinct personality. The tannins are still a bit tight; drink after 2010. Imported by Banville & Jones Wine Merchants.
